Nashville MTA celebrates Transit Driver Appreciation Day

NASHVILLE – Transit Driver Appreciation Day is being observed Friday, March 16, and the Nashville MTA is joining its peers across the country in saying Thank You to the men and women who carry our loved ones, friends, and colleagues each day.

"Here at Nashville MTA, our successes are not possible without the dedication, support, and tireless effort of our bus operators," said Nashville MTA Chief Operating Officer India Birdsong. "They provide vital transportation services for the people of Davidson County, caring for their communities day in and day out. I couldn't ask for a better team and want to thank our operators. I'd ask that each customer boarding their afternoon bus or train take a moment to stop and express their appreciation, too."

Customers are also encouraged to recognize transit professionals by posting messages on social media at #tdad or #saythankyou.
